

I believe that K-Love radio station is so important to our community. This is where I hear current news and my children receive positive and uplifting messages and music. Without K-Love on the air I would not be listening to the radio at all. I love this station and pray it will always be available for my family and friends to listen to.